REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Citizens and Taxpayers of New Boston:

During the current year, schools are being conducted at No. 2, No. 13 and in the village. There are 110 pupils in the grades and 45 in High School. Four elementary teachers and three in High School direct the instruction. Miss Carolyn Dodge, in High School, Miss Christina Darling, grades 4, 5, 6, and Miss Ellen Barr at No. 13, began teaching here with the beginning of the year. Miss Dodge is a graduate of the State University, while Miss Darling and Miss Barr are graduates of Plymouth Normal. All had taught previous to this year.

Before the close of schools last year, the pump, which had been in use in the village building for some time, gave out. It was necessary to repair, put in a new one, or make some other arrangement. So, while something had to be done, it was considered wisest to do the best thing—and an electric pump and pressure system was put in. This provides water in every room and in the laboratory—and does away with the unsightly and unsanitary pump.

Because of the number of pupils in the grades the state department suggested that we put grades 7 and 8 along with the High School this year, the class work to be done by the High School teachers. The arrangement should increase the amount of State Aid to be received. This makes 45 High School pupils and 19 in the 7th and 8th grades, or a total of 64. This is not an excessive number, although, of course, it does add to the teaching load of the High School teachers. Had this change not been made there would have been an overload in the grade rooms. The former grammar room, grades 5, 6, 7, 8, would have enrolled 47 pupils and the primary room, grades 1, 2, 3, 4, would have had 40 pupils. This number of pupils in each room, involving four grades, affords more of a "teaching-load" than should be required. Even with the present arrangement of three grades in a room, Miss Leach has 30 and Miss Darling has 37.

As far as we can see, the number next year will probably be a very few pupils less. Absolute accuracy as to numbers is impossible.

But the two years following next year, that is, 1932-33 and 1933-34 will find a somewhat larger number in the four grades of High School and grades 7 and 8.

No change in accommodations is absolutely necessary for the coming year. But plans should be considered in order to be ready to relieve matters before work is seriously handicapped.

Below are certain suggestions as to ways in which this relief might be worked out. These are put in definite form, not at present recommending any one. It is hoped these may be the basis of discussion and further suggestion.

I. Enlarge the present village building to provide room for all grades, 1 to 8, and all High School work as well, including space for Home Economics.

II. Provide three rooms outside of the present building to take care of all grades 1 to 8. This would free the present building for exclusively High School purposes, making possible an enlarged chemistry laboratory, and room for Home Economics on first floor of building.

III. Provide two ample class rooms outside the present building to accommodate grades 1 to 6. At present that would enroll about 65 to 70 pupils. Grades

7 and 8 would remain with the High School. This would make possible Junior High School grade of work which would be of advantage—at the same time requiring but two rooms outside. Consider in this connection—this suggestion, if carried out would provide:

(1) Ample room for High School—with increased laboratory space—also room for Home Economics.

(2) Grades 7 and 8 could be taken care of in connection with High School—as “Junior High.”

(3) But two rooms outside would be necessary.

It is the desire of all concerned that this adjustment be made in a most economical way carefully planned, looking ahead, the change suggested should suffice for years to come.

Respectfully submitted,

J. BYRON TARNEY.
